Teachers Meet.
Hartford District Association met at Beaver Dam November 7 at 10 a.
m. House called by the chairman.
Three distinct ways of elevating the school—discussion opened by Nettie Rogers. I. P. Hickel being absent the subject was discussed by others.
Prof. Taylor says the teacher must show that he is interested in the work.
Prof. Ray says the teacher must elevate himself. I. C. Hoover and R. C.
Jarnagin say that an elevation of the teachers' wages would elevate the school.

How to study the child's mind was ably discussed by H. E. Brown. He thinks to study the child one must be a close observer. Prof. Taylor would first find out what the child likes.
The paper read by Lula Cox was excellent.

Why are our reading circles failing?—Supt. Z. H. Shultz says it is because the teachers are not interested and do not understand the importance of the work. Others say the teachers are not paid enough to allow them to spend much time on reading circles.

Professional training, how and when acquired was discussed by T. J.
Small, L. T. Barnard and J. H. Taylor. The best suggestions given were "make a study of the subject" and "read good books."

Why I think—the reasons given were good, but too numerous to find space for here. Noon

Proper inducements for the student —J. H. Barnard would fill the minds of the pupils with high aspirations by pointing out to them the lives of great men; would offer prizes in lower grades. Lon Rogers would not offer prizes. Thinks the evil arising from giving prizes outweighs the good.

Prof. Ray's sketch of Horace Mann was enjoyed by all.
Miss Rachie Sander's essay on "teaching as stepping stone," was full of beautiful and useful thought.
R. C. Jarnagin thinks teaching will continue to be a stepping stone until salaries are raised.

F. G. Miller made an interesting talk on how to secure higher wages.
He says if the teachers will make a great clamor about it their wages will be raised. H. H. Davis would visit the patrons, but thinks it would be better to petition the Legislature.
Prof. Jarnagin advocates doing away with some of the county and also some of the States offices.

The teachers present seemed not to have had much trouble in school but few difficulties were presented.
The association adjourned to meet at Hartford, December 19.

The following articles were taken from week before last Grayson Eagle: Talk about dirty, lying sheets, the Hartford Herald takes the whole basket. Its awful clean—nit.

Did you ever hear of the Hartford Herald telling the truth, politically?
Not since Adam was a baby, and there was no such thing as politics.

What a wonderfully clean sheet that Hartford Herald must be. Wonder who saved it so clean—well never mind its editor is not yet saved even if the prop is.

The religious (?) Hartford Herald says "there's something rotten in Denmark," well we should remark.
For the past few months the Hartford Herald, a great religious (?) weekly edited by a weekly fellow named Matthews, who by the way is a turn coat and bolter, been trying to make the people believe that huzzar was turkey, and because the people of Ohio county turned that religious (?) sheet and its editor down they must put up the cry of "something rotten in Denmark." If there was anything the matter with the Fordville precinct why don't that empty headed, bland, ultra-religious (?) extremely truthful H. M. cause the actors in the alleged fraud to be brought to time. No he must content himself with a vile charge to which there is neither truth nor foundation and then claim that Bryan got a majority of 26 in the county.
Go soak your head or sleep off your drunk.

The Hartford Herald says that Kentucky can congratulate herself that Billy Breckenridge was defeated, but the record of Breckenridge with all of its dirt is absolutely clean beside that of Dave Smith. Perhaps the Herald's Editor sleeps in the same kind of bed that this Dave Smith has been occupying and in order to cover up their cussedness must attack one who stands head and shoulders above them. Breckenridge has made a name for Kentucky in Congress that such men as Smith can never tarnish, no matter how much they may try.
Do not for an instant think that the Eagle upholds Breckenridge for his cussedness, but give to the devil his due and render unto Caesar that which is his. A few years past and the Herald was filled with praise for the silver tongued orator of Kentucky but now the Herald in its chafy (?) would add a kick instead of a helping hand. Let Smith's record as a State Senator be exposed, let his private life be exposed and men who now support him would turn away in disgust. Smith is a disgrace to represent Kentucky in Congress.

Horace Greeley once said: "The way to resume is to resume," speaking of again putting gold into circulation after the war. But you may say "resume" any number of times to the torpid liver of yours and it won't help until you take Simmons Liver Regulator. Many people seem to forget that Constipation, Bilelessness and sick Headache are all caused by a sluggish liver. Keep the liver active.

GAS LIGHTING.

Revolutionized by the invention of a Hartford Man.

A new invention in artificial lighting, recently perfected in Hartford, may result in a considerable revolution in methods of illumination.
Lamps without wicks and oil lamps that burn without chimneys are not unknown, but the successful production of a good gaslight direct from hydro-carbon and without the use of an extensive gas reservoir or elaborate and cumbersome mechanism is a novelty as well as perhaps a seeming impossibility. Leroy S.
Lewis, of Hartford, is the patentee of an apparatus by which gas is evolved directly from a small reservoir of liquid hydro-carbon. The heat generated by the burning gas operates to suck the oil into the tube where it is converted into gas and emerges to make a steady and safe light, 50 per cent. superior in illuminating power to the ordinary gas.

No perishable medium is employed in the apparatus and there is nothing to get out of order. The gas fixture with the small oil bulb attached is not cumbersome or unusual in appearance. No one on seeing two of these gas jets burning when suspended from the ceiling or the wall exactly like an ordinary gas light would suspect that it did not draw its supply of gas from some distant source. The light is steady and not a great heat-producer. Gas used in this way could not possibly cost over 50 cents per 1,000 feet.
The fixtures are cheap and easily manufactured.

This invention will make it possible to introduce illuminating gas in every community without the establishment of any plant for the manufacture of gas. Country villages may be as thoroughly lighted by gas as any city. The patent is a broad and fundamental one, the principle of the invention being wholly new.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

BUGS TELL THE TIME.

A Novel Clock Exhibited in a Portland Show Window.

A jeweler near the junction has a novel clock in his show window. It puzzles and amuses crowds every day. There is simply a dial a foot and a half square, apparently lying on a box an inch in depth. There are no hands and no holes in the dial. In spite of this the clock tells time perfectly. There are two little Mexican bottles of the green-bronze variety that have been more or less popular as scarfpins, etc., and they crawl about and mark the minutes and hours accurately. One of them rests on the outer circle of the dial and moves from one figure to another each hour. The other bug marches on the dial's inner circle, and moves one-fifth of the space between the figures every minute. What tells the bugs when and how far to move is a mystery that 99 out of every 100 who look at them give up in despair.

The bugs are plainly enough alive, else how could they walk? And there are no strings on them, so why do they not walk off about their own affairs as any ordinary bug would do in no time?
"The thing's simple enough," said a man, after glancing at the clock.
"The bugs are dead as Julius Caesar." Each of them is merely a shell and has a bit of steel set into its base.
The clock has hands, only they are underneath instead of above the dial, and they are magnetized.
Every time the hand forces ahead its attraction carries the steel and the little green bug about with it.
Put a couple of steel pins on a sheet of paper and move a magnet around underneath, and you'll see just how it works. It's too easy."—Portland Oregonian.

A PLUCKY LIGHT KEEPER.

The Three-Weeks' Vigil of a Fifteen-Year-Old Lad.

At one of the wildest and bleakest of light stations of the Maine coast, according to a story told there, was once the scene, says Kirk Munroe in Scribner's, of a remarkably plucky adherence to duty on the part of a 15-year-old boy. He was the son of the keeper, and on this occasion was left alone in the tower while his father went ashore for provisions in their only boat. Before the latter could return a violent storm arose, and for the next three weeks there was no time in which the keeper's boat could have lived for a moment in the wild seas that ragged about the lonely rock. Still the light was kept burning by that 15-year-old boy, who had little to eat and but scant time to sleep.
Night after night, for three weeks, his steady gleam shone through the blackness of the pillous storm and gladdened the father's straining eyes. When the ordeal was ended the boy was so weak from exhaustion as to be barely able to speak.
At the same time there was no prouder father nor happier young lightkeeper on the Maine coast than those who met on the storm-swept ledge of Saddleback that day.

CHARLES PARKER, of the Populist Committee, has been pouring some hot shots into the silver Democratic party, which he says tried to disrupt the Populist party in the late campaign. All fusion is now at an end between silver Democrats and Populists he says. Mr. Parker says wherever the Populists voted with the Democrats they lost and did so by forsaking their emblem for that of the Democrats.

The Democrats of Ohio county make no effort to conceal the fact that they expect to purchase the support of the Populists next year by giving them one or two places on their ticket, and we want to suggest to our Populist friends that they ask the Democrats to allow them to maintain their identity, as well as their self-respect, by voting, at least once in two years, under their own device, and that the Democrats surrender partisanship to patriotism, and vote under the plow and hammer.

The free silver Democratic Committee met at Lexington this week and determined to exclude all sound money Democrats from their ranks, and will not allow them to participate in the free silver primaries in the future. This body was composed of the same men who have all along been making war on the Populists. The breach is widening every day in the Democratic party and the sound money element is gaining strength by the two-fold as each moment rolls by. While this is going on the young men are going into the Republican party by the hundreds. They came to the conclusion the Democracy as preached by Blackburn, Tillman, Rice & Co., and renouncing under the banner of Protection and Sound Money.

RANDOM NOTES.

Gathered From Various Sources and Compiled for Our Readers.

Joe Blackburn is dying hard, but it is a "case with him" and he has to let go. He has lived and revelled so long in luxury at the expense of the people that when he ceased to draw a salary from the government next March he will be in about the same position as a duck without water.

If you have made up your mind to live in a town, then stand up for it, and if you know positively no good silence is golden. Do all you can to help along every man who is engaged in a legitimate business. Do not send away for everything nice you want and still expect the home men to keep a stock to suit the whim of one or two possible customers. The success of your fellow townsman will be your success. No man liveth to himself and no man does business independently of his fellow business men. Take your home paper. Do not abuse your neighbor. The main difference in a number of his faults and your own is that you see through a magnifying glass as a critic. The illomened bird, the croaker, can do a town more harm in a minute than two good citizens can repair in a month.

The saddest spectacle that greets the eye of one who looks for melancholy sights is presented by the single occupant of the deserted free silver Populists headquarters, in Louisville. In the center of an empty office, in the midst of a waste of papers that were wont to drift here and there, waited by the colloquial wind of the late inhabitants; on a floor decorated with a dark brown by the expectations of the rabid hosts who chewed and talked and talked and chewed, "alone and scratching his five wits," the Populist Secretary with fretful whiskers sits, supreme in his loneliness, the last of the Kentucky silver barons, the last of the free coinage Mohicans. In yonder corner stands the empty chair where once the "Light horse Harry," of the silver dragons, was wont to esconce himself; and by it the antique oak bottom chair where Urey, of the hyperion cradles, did rear back as he belied weighty converse with his chief. But they are gone. They have flown to the secluded banks of Salt river, and Gussie lingers at his post—the fidus Achates—the Populists' Casabianca. He has "another deck up his sleeve." Like the village schoolmaster "though beaten he can argue still," or all day long he ponders over the fight and like the old man in "Old Curiosity Shop," he shuffles the election cards and wears himself weary to find the combination that might have brought success and not left him the solitary mourner of a lost cause. The mention of McKinley's election sends him off into a spasm, in which every particular capillary of his wind-blown whiskers stand out like the reeds on a street cleaner. And when Gussie is gone, who is there who will mourn for Gussie?

"Am I afraid of lightning?" repeated a young woman the other day in answer to a question. "I used to be until a man I met told me I was in much more danger of being murdered than of being killed by lightning. As I have never lain awake at night's fear to be murdered, I began to lose my fears of electric storms, and now one has to be very severe to alarm me. Statistics show that there is only one chance in a million of a house being struck by lightning. An eminent scientist who has recently been investigating the matter says that the only precaution necessary is to avoid a draught. Shut your doors and windows when a storm comes and you are safe from lightning as it is possible to be safe from anything in this world of surprising happenings."

Here is a novel suggestion. It is that on January 1, 1900, a new division of the year into thirteen months be instituted. It is claimed that this is not so preposterous as most people would be likely to consider it at the first thought. Mr. Brooks says that if such a division were made, the first twelve months would have just twenty-eight days, or four weeks each, and the new month twenty-nine, twenty, thirty, and thirty-one days. After a few days there would be no need to refer to calendars, as the same day of the week would have the same date through the year. If January 1 were say Monday, every Monday would be the 1st, 8th, 15th, and 22nd; every Tuesday the 2d, 9th, 16th and 23d, and so throughout the year. The changes of the moon would be on about the same dates through the year, and many calculations, like interest, dates of maturing notes, Easter Sunday, and many other important dates would be amplified. Mr. Brooks is of the opinion that although the present generation would have to figure new dates for birthdays, and all legal holidays, except New Year, would be on different dates, yet the gain would be more than the loss, as that would be permanent, and the objection trifling.

The general health of this community is good. Mr. George Smith is improving. Little Byron Austin has been quite sick, but is somewhat better.

Last Saturday and Sunday was our Quarterly Meeting. Ministers present were Rev. Ilayes, Rev. Spire and Rev. Chandler. Our Pastor, Rev.

Miss Ollie Taylor, South Beaver Dam, visited her Uncle, Mr. H. B. Taylor, last Saturday.

Mr. Toni Tatu, of near Hartford, passed through this neighborhood last Monday.

Mr. Henry Taylor, near Goshen, visited friends and relatives here the last of the week.

Mr. James Austin was in Hartford Thursday.

Mr. Ellis Smith, who has been at home for several days on account of his father's illness, has entered school again.

A number of people from this place anticipate attending the Quarterly Meeting at Providence next Sunday.

Miss Eva Berryman, Kinderhook, spent a few days last week here at her father's home.

Mrs. Sallie Barrett and daughter, Miss Iva, spent Wednesday last at Mr. George Smith's.

NO MORE FUSION

Says the Owensboro Populist Editor.

Capt. Sam James, editor of the Farmer's Journal of Owensboro is out in a card in his paper denouncing the Democrats for the way the Populists were treated in the late campaign. He is red hot. While the Democracy got six Congressmen from Kentucky through the aid of the Populist he says, the Populists doesn't even get any of the credit. He calls a halt on any future fusion and says:

"The Democrats, with their accustomed sagacity and enterprise, are making up a tale of all the county officers to be voted for in Davies county next year. Right here we desire to say that if the Democrats reckon on the People's party taking a hand with them in the county contest—or any other kind of a contest as to the matter of that—they will reckon without their host."

"The People's party has just emerged from a contest in which it stood by the Democratic party in the greatest political battle ever fought since the creation of the world, but it will vote under the Democratic device no longer. But be it understood, the People's party will not vote under the device of either of the old parties under any circumstances whatsoever."

Jerome K. Jerome's last story, previous to his engagement to write two plays, has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal, and is to be printed in its January issue. It is called "An Item of Fashionable Intelligence," and deals with life in the higher social circles of London.

The Republican and the Louisville Daily Post both papers 1 year for $2.75.

Thanksgiving services were conducted at Hamlin Thursday night by Rev. O. M. Wilson.

Mr. Henry Felix is at Beaver Dam this week working on the parsonage. Mr. A. Foster is visiting friends and relatives in Washington county this week, his old home in former days, but is expected home soon.

Mrs. Pulkerson and Miss Lucy Maples visited the school at victory Tuesday evening.

Miss Jennie McDowell has returned home from Central City. Quite a crowd attended church at Concord Sunday night from this place.

Messrs James Black and Andrew Maples visited friends near Conwell Saturday and Sunday.

A protracted meeting has been in progress at Concord Church. Services were conducted by Rev. Matthew. This meeting was largely attended, although no decided results were attained.

Mr. Thomas Black entered school at Victory Wednesday.

The Republican and the New York Tribune both papers one year for $1.25.

The free silver Democrats of Barren county have done a nice clean job—uniting with the populists of Barren county. The populists by supporting Bryan increased the Democratic majority from 450 to 928, yet they get no credit for it. The Democratic leaders point with pride to their big vote, and ignore the balance of power in this county. The primary was called just at the proper time to get out a big vote for Bryan and to give the populists a kick as they left the polls, refusing them a representation on the Democratic county ticket. But a local Democrat leader expressed the sentiment the other day when he said "we will fix them; all they want is the representative." The gentleman must have thought 500 voters are easily pleased. They are entitled to a division of the county offices and ought to demand them. The gold standard Democrats are given credit for casting 42 votes in the county, but the People's party is not given credit for a single vote. Justice to all. The people want what is just when it comes to county offices, but just at this time the Bryan leaders, after they pick up all the nominees, are crying, "unholy combination and free silver."—Glasgow Republican.

Oil and Water.

It is just as reasonable to suppose that oil and water will unite as that the two wings of the Democratic party, represented by the Chicago and Indianapolis platforms, will come together. They have no common ground and are as far apart as the north and south poles. When men or factions disagree to the extent that they heap vile names upon each other then we can understand how wide is the chasm between them. The average silverite has not the least respect for the Democrat who voted for McKinley or sound money, and the only condition upon which these men meet is that they are social neighbors and brothers but not political brethren. Oil and water will not mix, neither will silver men come mingle with sound money Democrats. The elements constituting these two wings have taken a stand against each other, and it is reasonably certain that they will remain in that attitude until the silver-plated men are absorbed by the sound money men, the original Jeffersonian Democrats. The sound money Democratic cause promises to rise because it is marshaled by a set of generals who are equipped for the fiercest battle that can be waged. Watch the sound money cause grow.—Patagraph.

Having been solicited by many friends of various sections of the county to become a candidate for the office of School Superintendent, I have finally consented to allow my name to come before the people for said nomination; and now kindly ask the support of the good people of the county, promising that if the nomination be entrusted to me to do all in my power to lead the party to victory in November, 1897.

Respectfully,
FON ROGERS.

Miss Lawton and Mr. Lytle.

The vacancies created in the collector's office by the resignation of Mr. S. W. Linebaugh, in charge of the tobacco and brandy accounts and the promotion of Mr. L. D. Russell to the position of internal revenue collector, were filled yesterday. Miss Estella Lawton is appointed by the commissioner of internal revenue to Mr. Linebaugh's office, at a salary of $1,000 per annum and Mr. J. W. Lytle appointed to the clerkship made vacant by Mr. Russell's promotion, that of assistant to chief Deputy W. W. Clark, at a salary of $900.

These appointments were made upon merit. Miss Lawton and Mr. Lytle having stood the best examination before the civil service board of examination. The names of the two fortunate applicants were certified to the commissioner by the civil service commission, and by the commissioner to J. D. Powers. The commissions of Miss Lawton and Mr. Lytle have not been forwarded, but the collector was notified yesterday by wire of the appointments.

Miss Lawton is a native of Tennessee. Coming to Owensboro, she first gave instructions in art, drawing and painting. Afterwards she was made teacher of German in the city schools, and at the beginning of the present session was appointed to a regular teachership in the schools and assigned to the Frederica-street school, grade No. 9, which position she is now holding. Her appointment will make a vacancy in the city schools.

Mr. J. W. Lytle, the other appointee, is from Hartford, Ky., where he taught school previous to removing to Owensboro. He was licensed as an attorney in the circuit court of this county several terms ago and since then has been engaged in the practice of law and clerical work in the office of Messrs Powers and Atchison.—[Owensboro Messenger.]

Bellevue, Tenn.

The Cumberland Telephone company completed its line to Deane field yesterday, and Owensboro is now in telephonic connection with Whitesville and Deane field, and the work is being extended to Fordsville, and in a week more the line will be working to this latter town.—[Owensboro Messenger.]

OWNERSHIP.
I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know how the people of this part of the county are getting along since the election. Farmers are busy gathering corn and some are delivering tobacco, for which they are getting some of them five dollars per hundred. Many hogs have died in this section in the last two months, but I think the cholera is going away now.

Mr. James Enslin is still in a very bad fix yet with his broken leg. Mr. G. R. Coleman is on the sick list. He has been in the bed for eight months and with his great age is not likely to ever get out among his neighbors again. Leslie Tanner is nursing from an attack of pneumonia.

There is considerable excitement in and around Centertown concerning the Hild Tichenor trial, and all except his father (with whom we all sympathize) are anxious for the law to take its course and mete out justice to the victim.

U. S. Carson is finishing up Dr. Chapman's dwelling house, and is a first-class carpenter.

Mr. Joseph Foster has exchanged residence with Mr. J. Polk Thompson. We all regret very much to give up Mr. Foster and family but welcome Mr. Thompson and family.

Ever since the election business has been improving, manufactures at many places are at work, and gold is in circulation again, which we were told by our free silver friends that it would never be seen any more by the common people.

Well, the people will see Prof. H. H. Davis, of Point Pleasant, elected County Judge of Ohio county next year, if he makes the race and I learn he is going to be a candidate. I know Mr. Davis personally, he is the son of an old soldier and is well educated, has a considerable knowledge of the law and is a licensed lawyer. He is a sober man, possessing the natural qualifications for a County judge. He is deliberate in his actions, impartial in his decisions and candid in his duties. He has been a life long Republican and deserves something at the hands of the people.

Mr. Fon Rogers is coming before the people of Ohio county for the office of School Superintendent. Mr. Rogers is a genuine Republican and an accomplished gentleman, well worthy of the office to which he aspires. No one questions his ability to fill the office and no one doubts his election if he makes the race, not even the Democrats. There are many good men in Ohio county to fill all the offices of the county, but none better than Mr. Davis for Judge or Mr. Rogers for Superintendent.

CURED AT 73 YEARS.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. No other medicine can show such a record. Here is a veritable patriarch, 73 years of age, with ailing heart, who took the New Heart Cure and is now sound and well.

SAMUEL O. PRYOR.

Grand Lake, Mich., Dec. 8, 1896. I have been troubled with heart disease 25 years or more. Most of the time I was as bad as I could be. I am 73 years of age and have had a great deal of trouble with my heart. I had severe palpitation, shortness of breath and sudden pains that rendered me helpless. All physicians did for me was to advise keeping quiet. In August last I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

and before I had finished the first bottle I found the medicine was a God-send. I have now used four bottles and am feeling entirely well. CHURCH CHAPEL.

Since the election farmers are working with new energy. The humming of wheels (not silver wheels) and the renewed sound of the forge indicate the return of the American people to prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas who are suffering with typhoid fever are thought to four days meeting at this place. The church was revived and some sinners were awakened. A protracted meeting began at Beulah Church Thursday night.

The Republicans of this side of the river have already decided who they want to make the race for the various county offices for next term. Among the chosen are R. C. Jarnagin for School Superintendent; S. T. Barnett for Sheriff, and S. A. Anderson for Circuit Court Clerk. These are all good men and in the right place and if they make the race the people of this side of the river will heartily support them.

The colored voters.

It gives us great pleasure that we can begin to realize that our Government will continue at his present place at least until his term of office has nearly expired. We wish him to remain and we hope to read of more Republican help going to Frankfort for the purpose of speedily improving the condition of State affairs. We can only ask justice to all, but as for United States Senator some of us are very anxious to see things turn in favor of the Hon. Jno. W. Lewis. Our expressions accord with those already expressed by some of the white Republicans.

It has been wisely suggested that the Town Trustees in putting stepping stones at the corners of the Court House fence put down a solid stone walk way. This would be a great improvement over the old way and would give the town the appearance of a city. We have talked to a number of our citizens and all seem to favor that plan.

Mr. Hilley Taylor and Miss Lizzie surprise as the young people had been sweethearts for a long time.

They are both popular young people will live at Beaver Dam.

The first announcement for School Superintendent, Mr. Fon Rogers, will be found in this issue. Mr. Rogers is one of the foremost teachers of Ohio county and has been teaching and going to school for several years.
He is well qualified for the place and is a worthy young gentleman in every respect. He is worthy, energetic and ambitious, and his many friends will be glad of the opportunity to vote for him.

Mr. Jno. T. King is announced this week as a candidate for Jailor of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. King comes from a large family of Republicans and is justly popular wherever he is known. He has had some little experience in an official capacity, having served as Deputy Sheriff for a while. He is a resident of West Hartford Precinct.

is announced this week as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Common Schools for Ohio county,

Mr. Waggoner, the territory man for the McCormick Harvesting Machine Co., was in town this week.
He placed an agency at Beaver Dam the machines this year. It would now be a capital idea for our boat people to put up a large warehouse at this place, and then all the freight used for the neighboring towns would be hailed from this place. It would be of great importance to the business interest of Hartford.

Mr. S. G. Rhoads, of Bartlett's precinct, is announced in this week's issue as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr.

in 1890 and made a magnificent race and was only defeated by a small majority. He is justly popular wherever he is known and will make a good race this time for the nomination and should be nominated and elected he will make a good official.

ATTY.

Why I ask this question in the first of God, to and for the good of a certain few who frequent the house of God, and especially on prayer meeting nights, for no other motive but to talk and laugh during divine services and also tear up paper and scatter it upon the floor.

Why is it, that this certain few can't go to church and behave themselves like young ladies and gentlemen should do?

Why is it, that they can't see it's very rude and ugly, and altogether uncalled for?

Why is it, that if they won't kneel or bow their heads during prayer, they will sit up and make fun of those who are leading the prayer?

Why is it, yes, pray tell us why is it that this had conduct in the house of God during divine services, is indulged in, not altogether by outsiders or non-church members, but by young ladies and gentlemen who hold membership in some church?

Why is it, that they can't see and know also that hy such conduct they are destroying public worship and depriving those of the pleasure of enjoying the services who go there to do so?

Why is it they don't remain away if they are not going to behave themselves after they get there?

Why is it they do not turn their eyes inward and see how sinful and unclean their own hearts are before God, and then while an opportunity is afforded unto them turn unto them and to our God who will shundantly pardon and fit them for right living here and after death take them unto Himself in whose presence there is fullness of joy and at whose right hand there are pleasures for evermore?

Deaf From Catarrh.

The sufferer from catarrh, perhaps, meets with more discouragement in seeking a cure than those afflicted with all other ailments. After exhausting the skill of the best physicians, and inhaling various mixtures, paying out large sums for doctors' fees and medicines, he finds himself either as deaf as an ass or a great deal worse.

The cause of this is easily explained. The disease is in the blood, and only a real blood remedy can possibly have any effect upon it. The doctors being unable, with their stereotyped remedies of potash and mercury, to cure diseases of the blood, direct their efforts toward treating the symptoms of the disease, and ignoring its cause. The inhaling of various sprays, and use of various cathartics, is but a superficial and temporary treatment, and cannot possibly effect a cure.

Mrs. Josephine Polhill.

Mrs. Josephine Polhill, of Due West, S. C., was for years a sufferer from this distressing complaint, and has learned by experience its tortures. She says:

"For years I was the victim of the worst case of catarrh that I ever heard of. I was treated by several doctors, and took numerous medicines claiming to cure the disease, but instead of being benefited my condition grew worse steadily.

"The trouble became so deep-seated that I was entirely deaf in one ear. It is difficult to describe my condition, but some idea of the ravages of the disease can be obtained when I state that all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone sloughed off. It can be readily understood how offensive all this was, and how unbearable my condition became. When the disease had gone this far the physician gave me up as incurable, and told me I would never be any better.

"Reading of many scientific papers being cured by S. S. S., I determined to try it as a last resort. I soon discovered that all my former treatment had been wrong, as the disease was in the blood, and only a blood remedy could cure it. I began to improve at once, and grew better as I continued to take S. S. S. It seemed to get at the seat of the disease, and after a few weeks' treatment I was entirely cured, and for more than seven years have had no sign of the disease.

"Catarrh is one of the deep-seated blood diseases, and only a thorough blood remedy will have any effect upon it. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy that is guaranteed

WHY WHEAT IS UP.

Because of reduced supply and increased demand.

In 1891 the harvest of Europe was extraordinarily low, and our crop was the largest we ever harvested. We had an enormous export. But since then our exports have been steadily diminishing from 225,000,000 bushels in 1891-2 to 125,000,000 bushels in 1895-6. During this period of decreased export for our wheat the Argentine Republic came to the front as an exporter, and the price of wheat naturally enough tended downward. Berlin, one of the highest authorities upon the wheat market, computes that the world's wheat crop averaged 222,000,000 quarters of eight bushels, for the four years 1883-4, 270,000,000 for the four years 1887-90, and 304,000,000 quarters for the four years 1891-4. The estimated increase in the demand for wheat for 1896-7 is 60,000 quarters a year, and in eight years the supply increased not 10,000,000 quarters, but 42,000,000 quarters. That the price should fall was inevitable.

But the world's available supply of wheat on July 1, according to Liverpool street, was 25,000,000 bushels less than it was one year before, and the world's crop for this year is estimated by the Liverpool Corn Trade News at 90,000,000 bushels less than last year. This makes the supply 115,000,000 bushels less than the supply a year ago. The estimate of this year's crop is 95,000,000 bushels less than the average crop for the four years 1891-4. The normal increase of demand due to increase of population since the middle of the last century point in that four-year period would be about 65,000,000 bushels. The conditions are very favorable, therefore, for an advance in price. This advance, due to the buying of American grain for Europe, began very slowly. As the purchases increased, the price rose faster. When American wheat was shipped to Australia and India, both of which are accustomed to export wheat, the price jumped suddenly. Vessel room for exporting wheat was well engaged early in the season, and only when it became evident that Europe had got to buy all we could sell had it been already engaged the ships to carry it to her, did the price here rise rapidly.

The following are the lowest and highest quotations on the New York produce exchange for cash wheat, No. 2 red:
